

Juneteenth! 2025

Join us for a Juneteenth Festival at the Woodlawn Library
Saturday, June 14 2025 | 10 a.m.-4 p.m.
1811 Woodlawn Drive, Woodlawn MD 21207

Baba Got Bars • On the Ball with Spinny •
Cardamom & Clove Henna • The Rooted
Collective • Urban Reads Bookstore •
Juneteenth Panel Discussion

Snow cones • Local authors • Black-owned shops and vendors • Natural hair and body care • Tarot and reiki •
Summer Reading Challenge Sign-up • Tie-Dye* • and More!

*Recommended to bring your own clothing to tie-dye.

11 a.m. – On the Ball with Spinny

Spinny Johnson performs unique tricks with his amazing basketball skills while teaching the importance of education, respect, goal setting, determination and perseverance. Using audience participation, Spinny persuades the audience to believe in themselves and to embrace positive thinking.

12 p.m. – Cardamom & Clove Henna

Henna artist Chelsea Stevenson demonstrates how to prepare fresh, natural henna paste to create safe, temporary body art designs. Learn henna designing skills using the henna cone. Participants are welcome to join at any time and enjoy this hands-on interactive experience.

1 p.m. – Baba Got Bars

Rap along to original, professionally released music created by Bomani, with songs highlighting tips on creative writing and historical facts about the birth and development of hip-hop culture.

3 p.m. – Panel Discussion with Michelle Hamiel and Tia Hamilton

Michelle Hamiel, Chief of Programs at Urban Libraries Council, and Tia Hamilton, owner of Urban Reads Bookstore and founder of State Vs Us Magazine discuss Juneteenth, Black American history in literature, and sharing of information in communities.