

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 3, 2025

Dr. Tekemia Dorsey Appointed President of Randallstown NAACP Branch #7032-B

Visionary Leadership to Guide the Branch Into a New Era of Community Empowerment and Justice

Randallstown, MD — The Randallstown NAACP Branch #7032-B proudly announces the appointment of Dr. Tekemia Dorsey as its new Branch President, effective March 26, 2025.

Dr. Dorsey assumes leadership following the resignation of former Branch President Ryan Coleman, who stepped down on March 25, 2025, after years of dedicated service to the Randallstown community.

With a dynamic background as a nationally recognized educator, advocate, and change agent, Dr. Dorsey brings a wealth of experience in strategic leadership, organizational development, and grassroots mobilization. Her appointment signals a renewed commitment by the Branch to expand its reach, deepen its community impact, and champion equity and justice for all residents of Randallstown and surrounding areas.

"It is both an honor and a responsibility to serve as President of the Randallstown NAACP Branch," said Dr. Dorsey. "At this pivotal moment in our community and nation, we are called to stand for transformative advocacy, inclusive policy, and collective progress. I look forward to working with our members, partners, and local stakeholders to strengthen civil rights protections and uplift the voices that too often go unheard."

Dr. Dorsey has a proven record of public service, having led initiatives that address racial disparities in education, public health, youth development, and economic empowerment. She is best known for her trailblazing work as an organizational leader and as CEO of The International Association of Black Triathletes (IABT), where she has championed youth empowerment and community health on a national scale.

The NAACP Randallstown Branch expresses its deep gratitude to Ryan Coleman for his years of steadfast leadership and advocacy. Under his guidance, the Branch made notable strides in civic engagement, public policy awareness, and local coalition-building.

Official Representation and Media Policy

Any and all inquiries regarding the Randallstown NAACP Branch must be directed exclusively to the Branch President. As the sitting Branch President, Dr. Tekemia Dorsey is the only spokesperson and official representative authorized by the NAACP National Headquarters to conduct interviews, issue public statements, or provide quotes on behalf of the Branch.

Furthermore, no reference to the Randallstown NAACP Branch #7032-B should be made in any form, publicly or privately, unless it originates directly from the sitting Branch President. This policy ensures the integrity, accuracy, and alignment of all communications with the mission and standards of the NAACP.

About the NAACP Randallstown Branch #7032-B

Founded in the spirit of justice and equality, the Randallstown NAACP Branch is dedicated to eliminating racial discrimination, advancing educational and economic opportunities, and fostering community empowerment across Baltimore County. As part of the oldest and largest civil rights organization in the nation, the Branch continues to uphold the NAACP's mission through advocacy, activism, and transformative service.

Media Contact:

Erica Williams, Secretary

NAACP Randallstown Branch #7032-B

Email: contact@randnaacp.org

Website: www.randnaacp.org